- (d) voting; and
- (e) priority of payment of capital and dividends in relation to other shares or classes of preference shares.

- 5.2 The Company may issue new preference shares that rank equally with existing preference shares. A new issue is taken not to vary the rights attached to the existing preference shares.

6. Variation of classes and class rights

- 6.1 Subject to the Corporations Act 2001, the Company may:

- by special resolution of the Company and:
- (c) by special resolution passed at a meeting of the holders of shares in that class; or
 - (d) by the written consent of shareholders with at least 75% of the votes in that class.
- 6.2 Part 5 (with the necessary changes) applies to meetings of holders of a class of shares.
- 6.3 The Company may issue new shares that rank equally with existing shares. The new issue is taken not to vary the rights attached to the existing shares.

8. Reduction of capital and buy-backs

Subject to the Corporations Act 2001 and the Listing Rules, the Company may:

- (a) reduce its share capital; and
 - (b) buy-back shares in itself in any manner permitted under the Corporations Act 2001.

9. Brokerage

The Company may pay brokerage or commission if a person takes up shares in the Company.

10. Joint holders

- 10.1 Two or more persons may hold a share only as joint tenants.
- 10.2 Subject to the Corporations Act 2001 and the Listing Rules, the Company need not register more than three persons as joint holders of a share.

11. Trust not recognised

Except as required by law or this constitution, the Company need not recognise:

- (a) that a person holds a share on trust; or
- (b) any interest in a share except the registered holder's absolute ownership of the whole share.

12. Share and option certificates and CHESS statements

- 12.1 When the Company registers securities of any class to a shareholder or option holder, the Company must issue to the shareholder or option holder, without charge, in the discretion of the Directors:
- (a) one or more certificates for those securities;
 - (b) if the Company is bound by the CHESS Rules, a statement of holdings required by the CHESS Rules; or
 - (c) any other document that confirms ownership of the securities as the Directors decide.
- 12.2 If the Corporations Act 2001 so permits, the Company:
- (a) need not issue a certificate for the securities; and
 - (b) may cancel a certificate and not issue a replacement.
- 12.3 The Company must comply with the Corporations Act 2001 and the Listing Rules in issuing those certificates, statements of holdings or other documents.
- 12.4 If required to issue a certificate, the Company need issue only one certificate for securities registered in more than one name. The Company must deliver that certificate to any one of the registered holders.
- 12.5 Subject to the Corporations Act 2001 and the Listing Rules, the Company must issue a replacement certificate for a defaced, worn out, lost or destroyed certificate.

13. Restricted securities

- 13.1 Notwithstanding any other provision in this constitution:
- (a) restricted securities cannot be disposed of during the escrow period except as permitted by the Listing Rules or ASX;
 - (b) the Company must refuse to acknowledge a disposal (including registering a transfer) of restricted securities during the escrow period except as permitted by the Listing Rules or ASX; and
 - (c) during a breach of the Listing Rules relating to restricted securities, or a breach of a Restriction Agreement, the holder of the restricted securities is not entitled to any Dividend or distribution, or voting rights, in respect of the restricted securities.

13.2 In this clause:

- (a) dispose has the same meaning as in the Listing Rules; and
- (b) restricted securities has the same meaning as in the Listing Rules.

Part 3 - Calls, liens and forfeiture

14. Calls

14.1 Subject to the Listing Rules and the terms of issue, the Directors may make calls on the holder of a share for any unpaid portion of the issue price of that share at any time.

14.2 The Directors may make a call payable by instalments.

14.3 While the Company is admitted to the official list of ASX, the Directors must give to the shareholder:

- (a) the period of notice of the call required by the Listing Rules; and
- (b) a call notice containing the information required by the Listing Rules.

While the Company is not admitted to the official list of ASX, the Company must give to the shareholder at least 14 days' notice of a call, specifying the amount payable, and the time and place of payment.

14.4 A call is made when the Directors resolve to make the call.

14.5 The Directors may revoke or postpone a call or extend the time for payment.

14.6 A call is still valid if either or both:

- (a) a shareholder does not receive notice of the call; or
- (b) the Company accidentally does not give notice of the call to a shareholder.

14.7 A shareholder must pay to the Company:

- (a) the amount called, by the time and at the place specified;
- (b) if the amount called is not paid by that time, interest at the rate fixed in this Part on an unpaid call (or instalment) from the date the call (or instalment) becomes presently payable until and including the date of payment; and
- (c) costs incurred by the Company in respect of the non-payment or late payment of the call.

14.8 Joint holders of a share and their respective personal representatives are all jointly and severally liable to pay all calls on the share.

14.9 If, by the terms of issue of a share, an amount is payable on issue or at a fixed date, the Company is taken to have properly called that amount and given proper notice of it.

- 14.10 The Directors may waive all or any part of an amount payable under this clause or the terms of issue of a share.
- 14.11 The Directors may recover an amount presently payable under this clause from a shareholder in all or any of the following ways:
- (a) by suing the shareholder for debt;
 - (b) by enforcing the lien on the share; or
 - (c) by declaring forfeit the share.
- 14.12 A debt is sufficiently proved by evidence that:
- (a) the shareholder is registered as a holder or a joint holder of the share; and
 - (b) the resolution for the call is recorded in the minute book.
- 14.13 The Directors may authorise the Company:
- (a) to accept from a shareholder an amount paid before call;
 - (b) to pay interest on the amount paid before call, at any rate the Directors decide, from the date of payment until and including the date the call becomes presently payable; and
 - (c) to repay the amount to the shareholder.
- 14.14 An amount paid before call is ignored in determining a Dividend or surplus in a winding up.

15. Indemnity from taxation

- 15.1 If the Company is required by law to pay an amount (including a tax) in respect of a shareholder or a share held by that shareholder or a Dividend in respect of a share held by that shareholder:
- (a) the shareholder or the shareholder's personal representative must:
 - (1) indemnify the Company against that liability; and
 - (2) on demand, reimburse the Company for any payment by the Company, and pay to the Company interest on it at the rate fixed under this Part from the date of payment by the Company until and including the date the shareholder reimburses the Company and pays any costs incurred by the Company because of the payment; and
 - (b) subject to clause 24.2, the Company may refuse to register a transfer of any shares by or to the shareholder or the shareholder's personal representative until payment of all amounts presently payable under this clause.
- 15.2 The Directors may waive any of the Company's rights under this clause.

15.3 The Directors may recover an amount presently payable under this clause from a shareholder in both or either of the following ways:

- (a) by suing the shareholder for debt; or
- (b) by enforcing the lien on the share.

16. Forfeiture

16.1 The Directors may resolve that a shareholder's share is forfeited if:

- (a) the shareholder does not pay a call or instalment on the share when presently payable; and
- (b) the Company gives the shareholder notice:
 - (1) requiring payment of that call or instalment, any interest on it and any costs incurred by the Company because of the non-payment; and
 - (2) stating that the share will be forfeited if the shareholder does not pay to the Company, at the place named, the total amount within 14 days (or any longer period stated) after the notice is given; and
- (c) the shareholder does not pay the total amount within that period.

16.2 When a share is forfeited, the Company must:

- (a) notify the former holder that the share is forfeited; and
- (b) record the forfeiture and date of forfeiture in the register of shareholders.

A failure to do this does not invalidate the forfeiture.

16.3 The former holder of a forfeited share must pay to the Company:

- (a) all calls, instalments, interest and costs in respect of the share at the date of forfeiture; and
- (b) interest at the rate fixed in this Part on those amounts from the date of forfeiture until and including the date of payment.

16.4 The forfeiture of a share extinguishes:

- (a) the former shareholder's interest in the share; and
- (b) all claims against the Company in respect of the share, including all Dividends presently payable by the Company on the share.

16.5 Subject to the Listing Rules, the Company may sell or otherwise dispose of a forfeited share on any terms and in any way the Directors decide.

16.6 A certificate by a director or secretary of the Company that the share was forfeited on a specified date is sufficient evidence of the matter, unless it is proved to be incorrect.

16.7 The Directors may:

- (a) waive any of the Company's rights under this clause; and
- (b) before sale or re-issue of a forfeited share, annul the forfeiture on any terms the Directors decide.

17. Lien

17.1 The Company has a first ranking lien on:

- (a) each share registered to a shareholder;
 - (b) Dividends on the share; and
 - (c) proceeds of sale of the share,
- for:
- (d) an unpaid call or instalment that is due but unpaid on the share;
 - (e) if the share was acquired under an employee incentive scheme, an amount owing to the Company for acquiring the share;
 - (f) any amounts the Company is required by law to pay (and has paid) in respect of the shares of that shareholder or deceased former shareholder; and
 - (g) any interest and costs presently payable to the Company under this Part.

17.2 The Company may sell a share to enforce the lien if:

- (a) an amount secured by the lien is presently payable;
- (b) the Company gives the shareholder notice:
 - (1) requiring payment of that amount, any interest on it and any costs incurred by the Company because of the non-payment; and
 - (2) stating that the share will be sold if the shareholder does not pay to the Company, at the place named, the total amount within 14 days (or any longer period stated) after service of the notice; and
- (c) the shareholder does not pay the total amount within that period.

17.3 The Directors may waive any of the Company's rights under this clause.

17.4 Registration by the Company of a transfer of a share releases any lien on that share, insofar as the lien relates to money owing by the transferor or previous transferor, unless the Company gives the transferee notice of its claim.

18. Sale

18.1 The Directors may authorise a person to sign a transfer of a forfeited share or a share sold to enforce a lien.

- 18.2 The Company must apply the sale price from:
- (a) the sale of a forfeited share; and
 - (b) the sale of a share sold to enforce a lien,
- in the following order:
- (c) to the costs of the sale;
 - (d) to the amount presently payable by the former holder to the Company; and
 - (e) to the former holder or the former holder's personal representative, on receipt of the certificate for the share (if any).
- 18.3 The Company must register the purchaser of the share as the holder of the share.
- 18.4 The purchaser need not enquire whether the Company:
- (a) properly exercised its powers in respect of the share; or
 - (b) properly applied the sale price for the share.
- These matters do not affect the title of the purchaser.
- 18.5 Unless expressly agreed, the purchaser is not liable for calls and other amounts presently payable in respect of the share before the sale.

19. Interest

- 19.1 A shareholder must pay interest under this Part to the Company:
- (a) at a rate the Directors decide; or
 - (b) if the Directors do not decide a rate, at 10% per annum.
- 19.2 Interest payable to the Company accrues daily.
- 19.3 The Company may capitalise interest monthly or at any other intervals the Directors decide.

Part 4 - Transfer of shares

20. Instruments of transfer

Subject to this constitution, a shareholder may transfer a share:

- (a) in the case of CHESS Approved Securities, in accordance with the CHESS Rules;
- (b) by an instrument of transfer in any common form or other form approved by the Directors; or
- (c) by any other method of transferring securities recognised by the Corporations Act 2001 and ASX and approved by the Directors.

21. Registration

- 21.1 If a CHESS Approved Security is transferred, the Company must comply with the CHESS Rules.
- 21.2 If an instrument of transfer is used, it must be:
- (a) executed by or for both the transferor and the transferee (unless it is a sufficient transfer of marketable securities);
 - (b) stamped;
 - (c) delivered to the Company's share registry, together with any evidence the Directors require to prove:
 - (1) the title of the transferor;
 - (2) the transferor's right to transfer the shares; and
 - (3) the proper execution of the instrument of transfer.

22. Effect of transfer

Subject to the CHESS Rules, a transferor of shares remains the holder of the shares until the transfer is registered and the name of the transferee is entered in the register of shareholders as the owner of the shares.

23. No charge

The Company must not charge a fee to register a transfer.

24. Refusal to register transfer

- 24.1 If the Company is not admitted to the official list of ASX, the Directors may refuse to register a transfer of shares only if:
- (a) clause 20 or clause 21 is not complied with;
 - (b) the shares are not fully paid; or
 - (c) the Company has a lien on the shares.
- 24.2 If the Company is admitted to the official list of ASX, the Company must not prevent, delay or interfere with the registration of a transfer document. This does not apply to a paper-based transfer document which is not a proper instrument of transfer. However, the Company may ask the approved CS facility (within the meaning of the Listing Rules) to apply a holding lock to prevent a transfer, or refuse to register a paper-based transfer document, where permitted by the Corporations Act 2001 or the Listing Rules. The Company must do so if the Corporations Act 2001 or the Listing Rules so require.
- 24.3 The Directors must give notice of any refusal to the security holder and any broker lodging the transfer. The notice must set out the reason for the refusal. Failure to do so does not invalidate the decision of the Directors.

25. Suspension of registration

Subject to the Corporations Act 2001 and the Listing Rules, the Directors may suspend registration of transfers of shares in the Company at the times and for the periods they decide. The periods of suspension must not exceed 30 days in any calendar year.

26. Company retains paper-based transfer document

- 26.1 The Company may keep a paper-based transfer document after registration.
- 26.2 If demand is made within 12 months after the Company gives notice of a refusal to register and there is no allegation of fraud, the Company must return the paper-based transfer document to the depositor.

27. Death of shareholder

- 27.1 If a shareholder (other than a joint shareholder) dies, the Company must recognise only the personal representative of the deceased shareholder as being entitled to the deceased shareholder's shares.
- 27.2 If a shareholder who owns shares jointly dies, the Company must recognise only the survivor as being entitled to the deceased shareholder's interest in the shares.
- 27.3 Whether the deceased shareholder owned the shares solely or jointly, the estate of the deceased shareholder is not released from any liability in respect of the shares.

28. Transmission

- 28.1 If a person is entitled to shares because of a Transmission Event and gives the Directors the information they reasonably require to establish the person's entitlement:
- (a) the person may:
 - (1) by giving notice to the Company, elect to be registered as the holder of the shares; or
 - (2) by giving a completed instrument of transfer to the Company, transfer the shares to another person; and
 - (b) the person is entitled, whether or not registered as the holder of the shares, to the same rights as the shareholder or deceased shareholder.
- 28.2 On receiving a notice under clause 28.1(a)(1), the Company must register the person as the holder of the shares.
- 28.3 A transfer under clause 28.1(a)(2) is subject to the same rules (for example, about entitlement to transfer and registration of transfers) as apply to transfers generally.

Part 5 - Proceedings of shareholders

29. One shareholder

While the Company has only one shareholder:

- (a) it may pass a resolution by the shareholder recording it and signing the record; and
 - (b) the rest of this Part does not apply.

30. Annual general

The Company must hold an annual general meeting:

- (a) within 18 months after its registration; and
 - (b) at least once in each calendar year and within five months after the end of its financial year.

31. Who may call meetings of shareholders

- 31.1 A director may call a meeting of shareholders, when and where the director decides.
 - 31.2 The Directors may call a meeting of shareholders, when and where the Directors decide.
 - 31.3 The Directors must call a meeting of shareholders when requested by the shareholders specified in the Corporations Act 2001.
 - 31.4 The shareholders specified in the Corporations Act 2001 may call a meeting of shareholders.

32. How to call meetings of shareholders

- 32.1 When required by the Corporations Act 2001, at least 28 days' notice must be given of a general meeting. If 28 days' notice is not required by the Corporations Act 2001, at least 21 days' notice must be given of a general meeting. However, unless prohibited by the Corporations Act 2001, the Company may call on shorter notice:
 - (a) an annual general meeting, if all the shareholders entitled to attend and vote at the annual general meeting agree beforehand; and
 - (b) any other general meeting, if shareholders with at least 95% of the votes that may be cast at the meeting agree beforehand.
 - 32.2 Notice of a meeting must be given to shareholders, directors, the auditor and ASX.
 - 32.3 A notice of a general meeting must:
 - (a) set out the place, date and time for the meeting;
 - (b) state the general nature of the meeting's business;
 - (c) if a special resolution is to be proposed at the meeting - set out an intention to propose the special resolution and state the resolution; and

- (d) contain a statement setting out the following information:
 - (1) that the shareholder has the right to appoint a proxy;
 - (2) that the proxy need not be a shareholder of the Company; and
 - (3) that a shareholder who is entitled to cast two or more votes may appoint two proxies and may specify the proportion or number of votes each proxy is appointed to exercise;
 - (e) if the Company is admitted to the official list of ASX, specify a place and a fax number, and may specify an electronic address, for the purposes of receipt of proxy appointments;
 - (f) if the Company is admitted to the official list of ASX, contain a proxy form in accordance with the Listing Rules; and
 - (g) contain anything else required by the Corporations Act 2001 or, if the Company is admitted to the official list of ASX, the Listing Rules.
- 32.4 The business of an annual general meeting may include any of the following, even if not referred to in the notice of meeting:
- (a) the consideration of the annual financial report, Director's report and auditor's report;
 - (b) the election of directors;
 - (c) the appointment of the auditor; or
 - (d) the fixing of the auditor's remuneration.
- 32.5 Non-receipt of notice of a meeting, or failure to give proper notice of a meeting to a person entitled to receive it, does not invalidate anything done at the meeting if:
- (a) the failure was accidental;
 - (b) the person gives notice to the Company that the person waives proper notice or agrees to the thing done at the meeting; or
 - (c) the person attends the meeting and:
 - (1) does not object at the start of the meeting to the holding of the meeting; or
 - (2) if the notice omitted an item of business, does not object to the consideration of the business when it is presented to the meeting.

33. Membership at a specified time

For the purpose of a particular general meeting, the Directors may decide that the shareholders at a specified time before the meeting are taken to be the shareholders at the time of the meeting.

34. Quorum

- 34.1 A quorum for a meeting of shareholders, proxies, representatives and others entitled to vote representing not less than one tenth of the rights of all shareholders having a right to vote at the meeting. No business may be transacted at the meeting unless the quorum is present at the commencement of the meeting.
- 34.2 In determining whether a quorum is present, the chairman must count shareholders, proxies, attorneys, body corporate representatives and any other persons entitled to vote. However, if a shareholder has more than one proxy, attorney or body corporate representative, the chairman must count only one of them. If an individual is attending both as a shareholder and as a proxy, attorney or body corporate representative, or in any other capacity, the chairman must count them only once.
- 34.3 If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting:
- (a) if the meeting was called on the request of shareholders or by shareholders, the meeting is dissolved; and
 - (b) any other meeting is adjourned to any day, time and place the Directors decide.
- 34.4 If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for a resumed meeting, the meeting is dissolved.

35. Chairman

- 35.1 The chairman of Directors is entitled to chair all meetings of shareholders.
- 35.2 If there is no chairman of Directors, or if the chairman is not present within 10 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting or is unable or unwilling to act, the deputy chairman of Directors may chair the meeting. If there is no deputy chairman, or if the deputy chairman is not present within 10 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting or is unable or unwilling to act, the directors present must elect one of themselves to chair the meeting. If they do not do so, the shareholders present must elect a person to chair the meeting.

36. Regulation of meetings

The chairman may regulate the meeting of shareholders in any way consistent with this constitution.

37. Adjournment

- 37.1 The chairman may adjourn a meeting of shareholders to any day, time and place with the consent of the shareholders able to vote at the meeting on a show of hands or a poll.
- 37.2 The chairman must adjourn a meeting of shareholders if the shareholders able to vote and holding a majority of votes at the meeting agree or direct the chairman to do so. The chairman may adjourn the meeting to any day, time and place.
- 37.3 When a meeting is adjourned, new notice of the resumed meeting must be given if the meeting is adjourned for more than a month.

37.4 Only unfinished business is to be transacted at a meeting resumed after an adjournment.

38. How shareholders make decisions at meetings

38.1 A meeting of shareholders makes a decision by passing a resolution. A resolution is passed if more than 50% of the votes cast by the shareholders entitled to vote are in favour of the resolution (unless the law requires a special resolution).

38.2 A special resolution is passed if:

- (a) the notice of the meeting sets out an intention to propose the special resolution and states the resolution; and
 - (b) it is passed by at least 75% of the votes cast by shareholders entitled to vote on the resolution.

39. How voting is carried out

39.1 Unless a poll is properly requested, a resolution put to the vote at a meeting of shareholders must be decided on a show of hands.

39.2 If a poll is properly requested, the result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting.

39.3 A declaration by the chairman that a resolution is passed, or passed by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minutes, are sufficient evidence of that fact, unless proved incorrect.

40. Polls

40.1 A poll may be requested on any resolution.

40.2 A poll may be requested by:

- (a) at least five shareholders entitled to vote on the resolution;
- (b) shareholders with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on the resolution on a poll; or
- (c) the chairman.

40.3 The poll may be requested:

- (a) before a vote is taken;
- (b) before the voting results on a show of hands are declared; or
- (c) immediately after the voting results on a show of hands are declared.

40.4 A request for a poll may be withdrawn.

40.5 A poll requested on a matter other than the election of a chairman or the question of an adjournment must be taken when and how the chairman directs.

- 40.6 A poll on the election of a chairman or the question of an adjournment must be taken immediately.
- 40.7 A request for a poll does not prevent the meeting dealing with other business.

41. How many votes a shareholder has

- 41.1 Subject to the Listing Rules, this constitution and any special rights or restrictions attached to a share, at a meeting of shareholders:
- (a) on a show of hands, each shareholder present (in person, by proxy, attorney or representative) has one vote; and
 - (b) on a poll, each shareholder present (in person, by proxy, attorney or representative) has:
 - (1) one vote for each fully paid share they hold; and
 - (2) a fraction of a vote for each partly paid share they hold. The fraction must be equivalent to the proportion which the amount paid (not credited) is of the total amounts paid and payable (excluding amounts credited). Amounts paid in advance of a call are ignored.
- 41.2 The chairman has a casting vote.
- 41.3 If a share is held jointly and more than one shareholder votes the share, only the vote of the shareholder whose name appears first in the register of shareholders counts.
- 41.4 The parent or guardian of an infant shareholder may vote that infant's share, if the parent or guardian satisfies the Directors of the relationship or appointment before the meeting. If the infant's parent or guardian votes the share, the infant shareholder must not vote.
- 41.5 A person may vote a share if:
- (a) the person is entitled to be registered as the holder of the share because of a Transmission Event; and
 - (b) the person satisfies the Directors of that entitlement before the meeting.
- The shareholder must not vote a share if another person does so under this sub-clause.
- 41.6 A shareholder must not vote a share if:
- (a) a call or other amount is presently payable in respect of the share;
 - (b) the shareholder is in breach of a Restriction Agreement in respect of the share; or
 - (c) the Listing Rules require the Company to disregard the shareholder's vote in respect of the share.
- 41.7 The chairman or other person may disregard any vote by a shareholder who is not entitled to vote.

42. Challenging a right to vote

- 42.1 A challenge to a right to vote at a meeting of shareholders may only be made:
- (a) before the meeting, to the Directors; or
 - (b) at the meeting, to the chairman of the meeting.
- 42.2 The challenge must be decided by the Directors or the chairman (as the case may be). The Directors' decision or the chairman's decision is final.

43. Proxies, attorneys and representatives

- 43.1 A shareholder, who is entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders, may vote:
- (a) on a show of hands:
 - (1) personally;
 - (2) by one proxy;
 - (3) by one attorney; or
 - (4) if a body corporate, by its representative, or by one proxy or by one attorney; and
 - (b) on a poll:
 - (1) personally;
 - (2) by not more than two proxies;
 - (3) by not more than two attorneys; or
 - (4) if a body corporate, by its representative, or by not more than two proxies or by not more than two attorneys.
- 43.2 A proxy, attorney or representative need not be a shareholder of the Company.
- 43.3 A shareholder may appoint a proxy, attorney or representative for all or for particular meetings of shareholders.
- 43.4 An appointment of an attorney or representative must be in a form approved by the Directors.
- 43.5 An appointment of a proxy is valid if it is signed by the shareholder making the appointment and it contains the following information:
- (a) the shareholder's name and address;
 - (b) the Company's name;
 - (c) the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy; and
 - (d) the meetings at which the appointment may be used.

The Directors may decide to accept a proxy even if it contains only some of that information.

- 43.6 Unless otherwise specified in the appointment, the proxy, attorney or representative may:
- (a) agree to short notice for the meeting;
 - (b) even if the appointment directs how to vote on a particular resolution:
 - (1) vote on an amendment to the particular resolution, a motion not to put the particular resolution or any similar motion; and
 - (2) vote on a procedural motion, including a motion to elect the chairman, to vacate the chair or adjourn the meeting;
 - (c) speak at the meeting;
 - (d) vote (but only to the extent allowed by the appointment); and
 - (e) request or join in a request for a poll.
- 43.7 If a person represents two or more shareholders, on a show of hands that person has only one vote for those shareholdings voting in favour of a resolution and one vote for those voting against a resolution.
- 43.8 If a shareholder appoints two proxies or two attorneys in one instrument and both are present, on a show of hands only the first named proxy or attorney may vote.
- 43.9 The appointment may specify the proportion or number of votes that the proxy or attorney may exercise. If the shareholder appoints two proxies or two attorneys and the appointment does not specify the proportion or number of the shareholder's votes each proxy or attorney may exercise, on a poll each proxy or attorney may exercise half of the votes.
- 43.10 A later appointment of a proxy or attorney revokes an earlier one if both appointments could not be validly exercised at the meeting.
- 43.11 An appointment may specify the way a proxy or attorney is to vote on a particular resolution. A proxy may vote only as directed.
- 43.12 An appointment of a proxy is effective only if the Company receives the appointment (and any authority under which the appointment was signed or certified copy of the authority) at least 48 hours before the meeting or resumed meeting, unless the Directors decide to reduce that time. The Company receives an appointment or authority when it is received at any of the following:
- (a) the Company's registered office;
 - (b) a fax number at the Company's registered office; or
 - (c) a place, fax number or electronic address specified for the purpose in the notice of meeting.

These requirements also apply to an appointment of an attorney.

- 43.13 Unless the Company receives written notice of the matter before the start or resumption of a meeting, a vote by a proxy, attorney or representative is valid even if:
- (a) there is a Transmission Event in respect of the shareholder;
 - (b) the appointment of the proxy, attorney or representative is revoked;
 - (c) the shareholder revokes the authority under which the proxy was appointed by a third party; or
 - (d) the shareholder becomes an externally-administered body corporate.
- 43.14 A vote by a proxy or attorney is valid even if the shareholder transfers the share for which the appointment was given, if the transfer is not registered at the time of the meeting (or at any earlier time fixed by the Directors so that shareholders at that time are taken to be shareholders at the time of the meeting).
- 43.15 A proxy or attorney may take part in a meeting of shareholders even if the appointor or representative is present. However, if the appointor or representative votes on a resolution, the proxy or attorney must not vote.

44. Proportional takeovers

- 44.1 If offers are made under a proportional takeover bid for securities of the Company:
- (a) the registration of a transfer giving effect to a takeover contract for the bid is prohibited unless and until a resolution (an approving resolution) to approve the bid is passed in accordance with this clause;
 - (b) a person (other than the bidder or an associate of the bidder) who, as at the end of the day on which the first offer under the bid was made, held bid class securities is entitled to vote on an approving resolution;
 - (c) the Directors may determine whether an approving resolution is voted on:
 - (1) at a meeting, convened and conducted by the Company, of the persons entitled to vote on the resolution; or
 - (2) by means of a postal ballot conducted by the Company in accordance with the procedure set out in this clause; and
 - (d) an approving resolution that has been voted on is taken to have been passed if the proportion that the number of votes in favour of the resolution bears to the total number of votes on the resolution is greater than 50%, and otherwise is taken to have been rejected.
- 44.2 The provisions that apply to a general meeting of the Company apply, with such modifications as the Directors decide are necessary, to a meeting convened under this clause.
- 44.3 In a postal ballot:
- (a) the Company must send a notice of postal ballot and ballot paper, to all persons holding bid class securities, at least 14 days (or any shorter period the Directors decide) before the date specified for the close of the postal ballot (ballot closing date);

- (b) non-receipt of a notice of postal ballot or ballot paper, or accidental failure to give a notice of postal ballot or ballot paper to a shareholder entitled to receive them, does not invalidate the postal ballot and any resolution passed under the postal ballot;
- (c) the notice of postal ballot must contain the text of the proposed resolution and the ballot closing date, and may contain any other information the Directors consider appropriate;
- (d) each ballot paper must specify the name of the shareholder entitled to vote;
- (e) a postal ballot is only valid if the ballot paper is properly completed and:
 - (1) if the shareholder is an individual, signed by the individual or a duly authorised attorney; or
 - (2) if the shareholder is a corporation, executed by the corporation in any way permitted by its constitution or the Corporations Act 2001 or by a duly authorised officer or duly authorised attorney;
- (f) a postal ballot is only valid if the Company receives the ballot paper (and any authority under which the ballot paper is signed or a certified copy of the authority) before the close of business on the ballot closing date at the registered office or share registry of the Company or any other place specified for that purpose in the notice of postal ballot;
- (g) a person may revoke a postal ballot vote by notice received by the Company before the close of business on the ballot closing date.

46. Appointment of directors

- 46.1 The Directors may appoint a director.
- 46.2 The Company in general meeting may appoint a director.

46.3 A person is eligible for election as a director at a general meeting only if:

- (a) the person is a director retiring under the next clause and notifies the Company that he or she is available for re-election; or
- (b) the person has signed a consent to nomination and lodged it at the Company's registered office.

The Company must accept these notices and nominations up to 35 Business Days (or in the case of a meeting that shareholders requested the Directors to call, 30 Business Days) before the general meeting. The Directors may decide to accept these notices and nominations closer to the date of the general meeting.

47. Compulsory retirement

47.1 The following directors automatically retire at the end of each annual general meeting:

- (a) any director appointed by the Directors or the Company in general meeting since the last annual general meeting;
- (b) one third (or if that is not a whole number, the next lowest whole number) of the other directors (not counting the managing director) provided that there must be at least one retiring director; and
- (c) any director for whom this would be the third annual general meeting since their last appointment or three years since their last appointment (whichever is longer).

47.2 The directors who must retire under clause 47.1(b) are those directors who have been longest in office since their appointment on registration or their last election (whichever is later). If they became directors on the same day, they may agree who retires. If they do not agree, they may select by lot who retires.

47.3 This clause does not apply to the managing director.

- 49.1 A director may appoint an alternate for a specified period with the consent of the Directors.
- 49.2 The appointor may terminate the alternate's appointment at any time.
- 49.3 An appointment or termination is effective only if:
- (a) it is in writing;
 - (b) the appointor signs it; and
 - (c) the Company is given notice of it.
- 49.4 The alternate need not be a shareholder or director of the Company.
- 49.5 The alternate is entitled to notice of Directors' meetings.
- 49.6 If the appointor is not present, the alternate may:
- (a) attend the Directors' meeting, count in the quorum, speak, and vote in the place of the appointor; and
 - (b) exercise any other powers (except the power to appoint an alternate) that the appointor may exercise.
- 49.7 A person may act as an alternate for more than one director.
- 49.8 If the appointor ceases to be a director, the alternate cannot exercise the appointor's powers.
- 49.9 Where:
- (a) an appointor ceases to be a director; and
 - (b) that appointor's alternate purports to do an act as a director,
- that act is as valid, in relation to a person dealing with the Company in good faith and for value and without actually knowing that the appointor has ceased to be a director, as if the appointor had not ceased to be a director.
- 49.10 The Company may pay an alternate any remuneration the Directors decide, in reduction of the appointor's remuneration.
- 49.11 While acting as a director, an alternate is an officer of the Company and not the agent of the appointor.

50. Remuneration

- 50.1 The Company may remunerate each director as the Directors decide, but the total amount of the remuneration of non-executive directors may not exceed the amount fixed by the Company in general meeting for that purpose (if any).

- 50.5 The Company must also pay travelling and other expenses that a director properly incurs on the Company's business.
- 50.6 If a director performs extra or special services for the Company, the Company may pay to the director any special remuneration the Directors decide, in addition to the director's normal remuneration.
- 50.7 The Company may pay a former director, or the estate of a director who dies in office, a benefit for past services as the Directors decide. This must not exceed the amount permitted by the Corporations Act 2001 and the Listing Rules.
- 50.8 The Company may establish or support superannuation or similar funds for the directors, as the Directors decide or as required by law.

 - (b) a director (or a Spouse, parent or child of a director, or any entity in which a director or a Spouse, parent or child of a director has an interest) may contract or make an arrangement with the Company (or a related body corporate or a body corporate in which the Company is interested) in any matter in any capacity;

- (c) a director may sign for the Company, or attest the affixing of the common seal to, any document in respect of that contract or arrangement;

- (e) the Company cannot avoid that contract or arrangement because of the director's interest.

Part 7 - Proceedings of Directors

 - 53.2 Separate copies of a document may be used for signing by directors, if the wording of the resolution and statement is identical in each copy.
 - 53.3 The resolution is passed when the last director signs.
 - 53.4 Passage of the resolution must be recorded in the Company's minute book.

54. Meetings

- 54.1 The Directors may meet, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they decide.

 - (b) the director or alternate gives notice to the Company that he or she waives the notice or agrees to the thing done at the meeting; or
 - (c) the director or alternate attends the meeting.

57. Quorum

- 57.1 The quorum for a Directors' meeting is two directors, unless the Directors otherwise decide.
 - 57.2 In determining whether a quorum is present, the chairman must count alternates. If a director is also an alternate, the chairman must count the director as a director and separately as an alternate. Despite anything else in this clause 57.2, there must always be at least two persons actually present to form a quorum.
 - 57.3 In determining whether a quorum is present, the chairman must not count a Director if he or she is not entitled to vote on a particular resolution under the Corporations Act 2001 or under this Constitution.
